THOMAS P. DeMUTH HAS JOINED THE MILWAUKEE OFFICE OF MALLERY & ZIMMERMAN, S.C.

MILWAUKEE—Thomas P. DeMuth has joined the Milwaukee Office of Mallery & Zimmerman, S.C. DeMuth will practice with the office's real estate, corporate and lending groups.

DeMuth represents purchasers, sellers, landlords, tenants, developers, investors and municipal entities in a wide array of sophisticated real estate transactions, as well as a variety of corporate and other business clients. DeMuth has extensive experience with loan workouts.

DeMuth is a former shareholder of Godfrey & Kahn, S.C., where he was the head of the Real Estate Lending Group. Before joining Godfrey & Kahn, S.C., he practiced tax law with a major Chicago law firm. He also has considerable personal experience as an investor in and developer of multifamily, retail, office and industrial properties.

DeMuth received his law degree in 1989 from the University of Wisconsin Law School and his undergraduate degree in 1984 from the University of Wisconsin. He resides in Whitefish Bay.

Mallery & Zimmerman, S.C. is a real estate and business law firm with offices in Milwaukee, Wausau, Green Bay, Stevens Point and Mosinee. The firm currently has a staff of 25 attorneys and anticipates further growth as needed to serve its expanding client base. It counsels and provides legal services to financial institutions, large and small corporations, partnerships and other business and real estate clients.

The firm's Milwaukee office is comprised primarily of individuals who formerly practiced at some of the largest Milwaukee law firms. These attorneys enjoy the flexibility and entrepreneurial spirit of a smaller firm and the opportunity to maintain and improve the sophistication and quality of their former practices.
